AT WHEELING PARK.

Many Strangers Voted this Delightful Resort Yesterday.

Without much sounding of brass or the tinkling of cymbals, Wheeling park yesterday, was visited by one of the largest crowds that ever visited it. The people kept coming and going all day, and one of the features was the large percentage of strangers who took advantage of the excursion over the Ohio River railroad, originated by traveling Passenger Agent Ashby Smith in conjunction with the secretary of the Park Association, Mr. Conrad Hirsch. It was an experiment, and it resulted most satisfactorily. Of the 429 passengers who were landed here by Colonel Smith, 329 of them took advantage of the occasion to visit Wheeling park.

As by a lover's sigh; and on the clouds. That floated so placidly through heaven. The spirits of the season seemed to stand.

Besides the Opera House band played, and it played under an inspiration it never had before. It was a banner day for the park.

HAD BETTER LUCK.

The Keystone State and Kanawha Passed the Sisters.

BUT IT WAS A CLOSE SHAVE.

For There was Less than Four Feet on the Wheeling Marks at the Time—On Slightly More Water the Virginia Failed to Accomplish this on Friday—River Men Anxiously Awaiting Rain and a Rise in the Upper Ohio River.

Last Friday afternoon, with four feet on the Wheeling marks, the big Virginia was unable to pass the Sisters Islands, just above Wheeling, while on her trip from Cincinnati to Pittsburgh, and had to return to Wheeling, leaving here for Cincinnati yesterday morning. As the Virginia draws a remarkable small amount of water for so large a boat, and as there was an inch less water here yesterday, it was not supposed that the Keystone State would be able to get past the obstruction that tripped up Captain Calhoun's boat.

But, strange to relate, Captain Knox worried his packet through the shoals at the Sisters yesterday afternoon, having left here at noon in consort with the Kanawha, which also succeeded in getting through. There was some anxiety as to whether the two packets had got over the shoals in safety. This anxiety was relieved last evening, when the Intelligencer received a special telegram from Stone State and Kanawha had passed that port and that Captains Knox and Huntington anticipated being able to go through to Pittsburgh.

The Bennett arrived yesterday morning with a lighter loaded with freight for the Virginia, but that boat had already departed and the stuff will be taken by the Keystone on Tuesday morning.

The marks here last evening showed 3 feet 10 inches and falling slowly. River men are anxiously awaiting rain, as unless relief comes quickly there is a tie-up of the big packets in immediate prospect.

A PLEASING OCCASION

Was the Function Following Confirmation of Young Herbert Horkheimer.

A pleasing function occurred yesterday afternoon and evening, at the home of Colonel and Mrs. Morris Horkheimer, North Main street. Their youngest son, Herbert M., was one of the confirmands at the Synagogue in the forenoon, and in his honor an informal reception was held.

From 2 to 6 o'clock a constant stream of people called, being preceded by the presents they showered on the "young hopeful." Colonel Horkheimer and his beautiful wife were overwhelmed with surprise at the elaborate gifts to their son, and were pardonably proud in that their guests were not all co-religionists, but included their friends in general. Mrs. Horkheimer was attired in an imported gown. Assisting her in receiving were Misses Hattie Reed, Bertie Wolf and Mollie Baer, all of whom were handsomely gowned. During the reception a light collation was served.

The event will never be effaced from the memory of the honored one, Master Herbert M. Horkheimer. Souvenirs of his confirmation were given in dazzling array and were all confirmands to be similar. The ceremony would take on itself a magic charm. He was the recipient of all that good taste could suggest.

The friends of the family lavished in profusion baskets of fresh roses, hydrangeas, ferns and flowers of all kinds, transforming the interior into a veritable flower garden. The effect was extremely pleasing to the eye.

Mr. A. Hirsch, Mrs. Horkheimer's father, came from Lancaster, Pa., especially for the occasion. In addition to gifts, the favored son received many telegrams of congratulation from friends at a distance.

OPERA SEASON TO OPEN.

"Fra Diavolo" at Wheeling Park Casino To-night.

The second season of summer opera will be opened at the Wheeling Park Casino to-night, by the Lyric Opera Company, fresh from successes at Fad's theatre, in Baltimore. The company of thirty-five people is a splendid one, headed by Miss Villa Knox, who is supported by Miss Minnie de Rue, Tom Ricketts, Fred Frear and Henry Stanley. Miss Knox and several others of the company were here last season, when they achieved a most conspicuous success. The opening bill will be in "Fra Diavolo," a most charming opera, which is a favorite with lovers of good music. "Fra Diavolo" will be the bill for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, and at the Wednesday matinee "The Chimes of Normandy" will be given on the occasion of the A. O. U. W. celebration. Lillian Russell's favorite "Cinderella" will be sung the last three nights. Popular prices 25c for all parts of the house, will prevail and a special motor will be run at 7:30. There is no more delightful place in the Ohio valley to spend an evening than at Wheeling park. It is now at its most beautiful. The Casino should be packed at every engagement.

The leading brands of Wines and Liquors, and all the Mineral Waters which are popular just now, may be secured at P. Welty & Co.'s. The very best goods at reasonable prices.

Note the Improvements.

T. A. Garee, at No. 1064 Market street, has had his business place remodeled, repainted and revolutionized in all respects, giving the place a modern appearance, and it is a pleasure to note that all the bar fixtures are the work of home industry. Mr. Garee is one of the leading liquor dealers of the city. His trade, by careful and conservative consideration, has extended into adjoining states, which is evidence of his square way of doing business. When you patronize Mr. Garee you endorse the principle of perpetuating home labor.
